Baltimore Clayworks' welcomes the holidays with WINTERFEST 2015 and JAZZ PREVIEW PARTY

In the Galleries: The Holiday Shop

Baltimore, Maryland - October 30, 2015 - Please join us for a sneak preview of our most popular exhibition and shopping event of the year - WINTERFEST 2015 and the HOLIDAY SHOP. Shop among fabulous ceramics before they become available to the public during this cash & carry event. This special affair includes wine, lite fare and live jazz by Alan Blackman. Tickets can be purchased through our website or by calling 410 578 1919 x10.

WINTERFEST 2015 is our nineteenth annual ceramics holiday exhibition featuring established and emerging ceramic artists. The show includes a versatile range of work - there is something for you and everyone on your gift list! Whether you need a beautiful serving bowl for a holiday party or a new piece of jewelry to wear for New Year's Eve, you'll find something unique during this holiday exhibition.

Invited artists include, but are not limited to:

Elaine Buss (CA), Ashley Devitt (PA), Shawn Ireland (NC), Jessica Kanaley (NY), Heidi Kreitchet (CA), Colleen McCall (NY), Brooke Noble (NY), Elizabeth Pechacek (MN), Susie Rubenstein (CA), Mat Rude (IA), Emily Schroeder Willis (IL), Kala Stein (CA), Evelyn Ward (NC) and Bill Wilkey (MT).

The Community Arts Gallery will feature the COMMUNITY ARTS HOLIDAY SHOW. Cups for a Class made by Tuerk House and cup-a-thon community participants will be available for sale. Not only will these cups make great gifts, but they also help fund our Community Arts programs!

Visit our HOLIDAY SHOP where the rest of our galleries will be transformed into a winter wonderland filled with hand-crafted gifts by Clayworks' resident and associate artists: mugs, bowls, plates, jewelry, ornaments, decorative and sculptural work and more! Don't miss your chance to purchase one of a kind, hand-crafted gifts that will delight and impress all on your holiday shopping list.

Baltimore Clayworks is a not-for-profit ceramic art center located in the Mt. Washington neighborhood in northwest Baltimore. Founded in 1980, Clayworks is housed in two reclaimed and renovated buildings located across the street from one another. This organization offers classes, artists' spaces, exhibitions, and programs throughout the community. Gallery hours are 10AM - 5PM, Monday through Friday, and 12-5PM Saturday through Sunday. For more information call Baltimore Clayworks at 410-578-1919 or visit our website, www.baltimoreclayworks.org.
